1. The number of troops in the Bornburg (M 52/D 76) barracks installation had decreased. On 5 September 1950 20-man groups were seen at sports and motor vehicle training and three or four-man sections training with signal equipment. Two trucks, each towing a gun and carrying eight soldiers, entered the barracks installation on 6 September 1950, coming from the direction of Magdeburg. Four 100-mm AT guns and motor vehicles
